Course Description
Continues development of skills of understanding, speaking, reading and writing of Russian. Classes conducted in Russian. Part II of II. Lecture 3 hours per week.

General Course Purpose
The purpose of Intermediate Russian is to enable the student to become more proficient in speaking and understanding Russian in a greater variety of situations. The student will learn the more complex structures of the Russian language. The student will also learn to read and write without recourse to translations, and will continue to explore the cultural aspects of the Russian-speaking world. In keeping with the National Standards for Foreign Language education, culture (music, art, gastronomy, social mores, and others) is embedded in this language course. This is reflected in our written and oral assessments.

Course Prerequisites/Corequisites
Prerequisites: RUS 102 and RUS 201. Students who have not taken RUS 201 should have Russian proficiency at or above the Intermediate-low level as defined by the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines
