

Diagnostic Medical Sonography Program Changes to the 2024 Admission Cycle

The following changes are being made to the application requirements for the Diagnostic Medical Sonography program beginning with the 2024 application cycle:

- Completion of MTH 161 or higher with a “B” or better grade
(change from MTH 154 requirement)
- Completion of DMS 100 Orientation to the Sonography Profession-1 credit (replaces the DMS Prospective Student Workshop requirement; this is a 7-week course offered every semester beginning Fall 2023; SIS registration will be available in late summer)

Fall 2023 Schedule

DMS 100	001H	1 st 7-week, 8/21 to 10/8	Wednesday, 2-4 pm at MEC
DMS 100	002H	2 nd 7-week, 10/18 to 12/12	Wednesday, 2-4 pm at MEC

- TEAS Test: Minimum required score of 70 on Reading, Writing, Math, and Science sections (change from minimum score of 50 per section)

All additional application requirements remain the same:

- Review online Information Session
- Have minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
- Complete or transfer SDV 101 Orientation to Healthcare with B or better grade
- Complete or transfer ENG 111 with B or better grade
- Complete or transfer BIO 141 with B or better grade and be within 5 years
- Complete or transfer BIO 142 with B or better grade and be within 5 years
- Complete or transfer PHY 100 with B or better grade and be within 5 years

The Diagnostic Medical Sonography Department
February 17, 2023