Creating your account on a Mac
You will need to create a Windows Live account to access OneDrive. To create your ID, follow the directions below:

2. Click Sign Up to create a new OneDrive account. (You can use an existing email account or Microsoft account.)

3. Once you have filled out the form, it will send a confirmation email to your account for verification.
4. Click the verify link in the email. Now you can go back to http://onedrive.live.com/ and sign in.
