NOVA COLLEGE-WIDE COURSE CONTENT SUMMARY
CHD 265 - ADVANCED OBSERVATION AND PARTICIPATION IN EARLY CHILDHOOD AND PRIMARY SETTINGS (3 CR.)

Course Description

Focuses on implementation of activity planning and observation of children through participation in early childhood settings. Emphasizes responsive teaching practices and assessment of children’s development. Reviews legal and ethical implications of working with children. One hour seminar. 4 hours field placement. Total 5 hours per week.

General Course Purpose

To provide students with a supervised work place experience, focusing on teaching practices and child observation skills. Students will participate with 3 different age groups, and will development and implement learning activities for children. Students will spend 15 hours in a seminar session in addition to 60 clock hours in the field.

Course Prerequisites/Co-requisites

Functional literacy in the English language; reading at the 12th grade level. Students must have completed the majority of program specific courses before enrolling. Students must be eligible to work with young children according to Department of Social Services requirements.

Course Objectives

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to:

- Differentiate Professional credentials, qualifications, requirements and competencies for early childhood settings
- Critique Techniques in teaching and facilitating learning gained by participating in daily routines and planned activities with children
- Design Appropriate environments and learning activities for all children, including those with special needs and varying cultural backgrounds
- Demonstrate Responsive teaching using appropriate observation, assessment and evaluation techniques for decision making
- Illustrate The importance of communication and networking skills to the professional
- Identify and respond to Ethics and public policy issues, including those related to professional standards
- Participate in Self assessment, evaluation, and ongoing professional renewal as a practicing professionals in an early childhood setting
- Evaluate Various types of employment options in the field of early childhood education as related to personal employment preferences
- Articulate The professional development transition from preparation to application and practice in the field of early childhood education
- Identify and apply learning standards as they relate to professional development, professionalism and observation and assessment: the Virginia Foundation Blocks, the Child Development Milestones, the Virginia Standards of Learning, and Core Competencies for Early Childhood Professionals.

Major Topics to be Included

- Work place skills, attitudes and values
- Curriculum development and child study
- Teaching goals and competencies
- Advocacy and professionalism
- Professional standards and legal requirements for teaching
- Adaptation of early childhood activities and environments
- Best practices of Inclusion