Study elements and genres of literature and schools of literary criticism while immersed in one of the world’s great literary capitals. Improve critical thinking and writing while exploring Shakespeare’s Globe Theatre, Westminster Abbey, the British Museum, the British Library, Bloomsbury, the Dickens Museum, Keats’ Grove, and more!

ENG 125-060W HYBRID (3 credits) Mon 7:00-8:15 pm
2nd six weeks: July 1 – August 11 at Woodbridge Campus
Travel to London August 1 – 9, 2013

Estimated cost (without airfare, tuition, textbooks, travel insurance, some meals, or incidentals) of $2,300 includes seven nights lodging in twin rooms in a 3-star London hotel, daily breakfasts, a welcome and a farewell dinner, public transport within London, admission fees, professionally-guided site studies, and 24-hour travel support. Travel deposit of 10% due April 5th.

For information, contact Prof. Lisa Smith at Lismith@nvcc.edu
See NOVA’s Office of Global Studies at http://www.nvcc.edu/academics/global-studies/
NOVA reserves the right to make necessary changes in the event unforeseen circumstances arise.