

Northern Virginia Runs on NOVA

NOVA is Your Talent Pipeline

Northern Virginia is at a pivotal point in its economic history. While the region is home to one of the largest concentrations of jobs in the nation, the region's unemployment rate has declined by 60% since 2010, leaving companies with a critical shortage of qualified professionals to fill their roles.

Northern Virginia Community College (NOVA) is here to help businesses compete on a global scale in the next decade. As the deepest talent pool in the Commonwealth of Virginia and the largest talent supplier for businesses in northern Virginia, NOVA is leading efforts to link our educational assets to the needs of industry. Finding talent requires creativity, agility, and new solutions. At NOVA, we work tirelessly to do just that—by developing innovative, data-driven programs and initiatives to build tomorrow's workforce.

Partnerships Matter

At NOVA, we know education has to be responsive to industry – and quickly. But in order to do so, we need partnerships with our business community. We are working with many of you and your peers to train, recruit, and hire, including:

- ▶ Alarm.com
- ▶ Amazon Web Services
- ▶ GDIT
- ▶ Inova
- ▶ Lockheed Martin
- ▶ Micron
- ▶ Northrop Grumman
- ▶ Virginia Hospital Center

Let's Work Together

A small investment in NOVA makes a big difference in the lives of students, employers, and individual residents in northern Virginia. Your partnership is critical in the continued economic success of our region. Below are a few ways to get involved:

- ▶ Apprenticeships & Internships
- ▶ Industry Advisory Boards
- ▶ Mentor
- ▶ Recruit & Hire
- ▶ Strategic Giving
- ▶ Teach for Us
