NOVA | Northern Virginia Community College

NSF

ACTE
Association for Career and Technical Education

- ● Largest Data Center Market - Northern Virginia
- ● Primary Data Center Markets
- ● Secondary Data Center Markets

APPLY FOR THE DCO
PROFESSIONAL LEARNING FELLOWSHIP
Data Center Operations Program Development (DCO PD)

Apply Here

The DCO Program Development grant is intended to expand the national capacity for teaching Data Center Operations (DCO) at community and technical colleges by recruiting instructors, administrators, and secondary school educators.

Fellows Will

Attend a 3-day professional learning series at NOVA's data center training facility in Woodbridge, VA, led by experienced industry professionals.
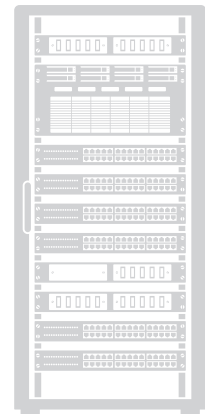

NOVA Woodbridge Campus

Complete a 5-day externship at an operational data center nearest their college that results in producing an educational action plan for integrating data center operations content into their professional practice.

Who Should Apply?

Instructors or administrators at community colleges, technical colleges, or secondary schools who are involved in one or more of the content courses below:

- Engineering
- Engineering Technology
- Electrical & Electronics
- IT & Networking
- Cable Fiber & Copper
- Plumbing
- Diesel Engines
- HVAC
- Fire Suppression
- Building Maintenance

Stipends

Program stipends will be paid in two installments. totalling $3,500.

- $1,750 after 3 months
- $1,750 at the end of the 6 month fellowship

For more info email jlabrie@nvcc.edu

For more on DCO at NOVA go to www.nvcc.edu/iet

teacherpd.novastem.us/fellowship