

NOVA COLLEGE-WIDE COURSE CONTENT SUMMARY
EDU 290 - COORDINATED INTERNSHIP (1 CR.)

Course Description

Supervises on-the-job training in selected, business, industrial or service firms coordinated by the college.

Course Purpose

This is a pre-professional course that provides students with the opportunity to serve as teacher assistants, tutors, classroom monitors, and substitute teachers in the K-12 public schools.

Prerequisite

EDU 200

Objectives

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to:

- Discuss strategies for developing a classroom community that affirms and welcomes all learners.
- Analyze a lesson plan for teacher roles, instructional strategies, and assessments.
- Develop and implement a classroom management plan.
- Implement and reflect upon culturally relevant pedagogy and classroom management strategies.
- Develop professional communication and time management skills.
- Summarize an emergency management plan.
- Complete the VDOE's required Child Abuse Training.
- Participate in the professional learning community of their assigned school.

Major Course Topics

- Lesson Planning
- Types of assessments
- Virginia Department of Education Child Abuse Training
- Classroom management
- Disproportionality
- Culturally responsive pedagogy
- Emergency Preparedness