1. Scope

This applies to all teaching faculty.

2. Policy

Faculty are expected to pursue high standards, challenging goals, and teaching excellence. They can expect that their dean or supervisor will provide them with guidance, support, encouragement, due recognition, and a fair assessment of their contributions to the college's mission.

The Faculty Development and Evaluation Plan provides a mechanism for investing in the professional growth, development, and performance of each faculty member, in accord with the following guiding principles:

- a. Northern Virginia Community College (NOVA) intends to foster a culture of high performance in a shared commitment to the mission of the college.
- b. A commitment to excellence with a focus on student success should be evident in all that we do.
- c. Faculty efforts should encompass effective performance in teaching, service, scholarly and creative engagement, and institutional responsibility.
- d. Faculty should take ownership of their performance and professional development as an ongoing job responsibility and as a responsibility of a member of the college community.
- e. Professional Development, Evaluation, and Recognition should be purposefully mutually reinforcing of each other.
- f. Evidence should inform evaluation and professional development decisions.
- g. Achievement should be recognized.
- h. Exemplary performance should be rewarded.
- i. Peer involvement and collaboration should be encouraged.

- j. Stakeholders who use the Faculty Development and Evaluation process should be well-trained in its purpose and use.
