

NVCC-TV Program Guide and Weekly Schedule

- See Weekly Schedule below for Days/Times or check out the on line schedule at <http://www.nvcc.edu/tvcenter/> for specific episodes

Nova In Focus

A program produced by NVCC-TV offering a glimpse into the various instructional and student life programs that the college offers

Great African American Authors

This breakthrough eight-part series tells the amazing story of the evolution of the African American literary tradition in the United States.

Earth Revealed

Explore the complex processes that shape our planet.

NASA Programs

Space programs produced by NASA

Destinos

This video instructional series teaches Spanish speaking and listening skills.

French in Action

Become fluent in French by exploring the culture in this video series

A History of American Indian Achievement

A story of early cultural achievements and a final story of little known accomplishments in this enlightening tribute to the American Indian.

A History of Chinese American Achievement

The incredible story of Chinese American Achievement from the first wave of immigrants to the entrepreneurs of the 21st century.

Human Geography Making Sense of Planet Earth

Human geography focuses on the distribution of places and human traits across the globe and their connection to one another.

Physical Geography: Making Sense of Planet Earth

Physical Geography encompasses earth systems, from the smallest land feature to whole continents ... to how weather affects the planet ... to how humans interact with natural resources and their physical landscape.

The Unique Continent

A Geological History of the evolution of the Australian Continent

Ancient History

In the 19th century and the early part of the 20th -century, archaeologists began unearthing evidence of many ancient civilizations across the planet in this series you will see these civilizations in a new light and appreciate their accomplishments afresh.

Return to the Sea

Return to the Sea portrays the life and evolutionary times of marine mammals

Great American Authors Since 1650

This series presents the rich, literary tradition of American storytelling.

Turning Points in U.S. History

Exploring the important historical turning points throughout US history from the 16th Century to today.

Complete History of U.S. Wars

This series explores the armed conflicts in American history from the time the first colonists set foot upon North America's shores, to the beginning of the 21st century.

African American Legends

African-American Legends profiles prominent African-Americans in the arts, in politics, the social sciences, sports, community service, and business.

A History of Black Achievement in America

This series documents Black Achievement in American History, its defining role in the growth of the country, and its influence on current events.

Conversations in Literature

Learn about "envisionment building" as a tool for literary interpretation with a community of expert readers.

Mozart on Tour

This 13-part series chronicles the journeys of the child, adolescent and adult Mozart across Europe, in what was ultimately to prove a futile pursuit of fame and fortune.

The World of Abnormal Psychology

A look at psychological disorders and their impact on behavior.

Miracle of the Human Body

This contemporary series on the human body reflects the modern advances made in medical technology.

A History of Women's Achievement in America

American women led the fight to end slavery, limit corporate power, provide education, and protect the poor. At the same time, American women would have to fight for their own equality.

American Entrepreneurial Genius

American Entrepreneurial Genius is an extraordinary 14 program series that brings to life the 400-year-old story of over 100 American entrepreneurs

Science Seminar

Recorded by NVCC-TV, these seminars offer a wide range of guest presentations on science topics.

NVCC Guest Speakers

NOVA attracts many special speakers to speak to its student body, join us for some thought provoking presentations recorded by NVCC-TV at its various campuses.

A Biography of America

Presents American history as a living narrative rather than a collection of facts and dates.

Exploring the World of Music

Learn the essentials of music theory and how music expresses culture in this video instructional series

National Gallery of Art

The National Gallery of Art preserves, collects, exhibits, and fosters understanding of works of art at the highest possible museum and scholarly standards. This program presents some of its collection

Neuroscience: Understanding the Brain

This five-part series investigates the last and greatest frontier challenging humanity's understanding of our world - the human brain.

Neuroscience of Addiction

This five-part series defines the brain's role in addiction, how drugs of abuse hijack the brain making us more susceptible to addictive behavior, how addictive behavior affects our brains, our lives and our entire culture and how breakthroughs in neuroscience are paving the way to new treatments for addiction.

A History of Hispanic Achievement in America

The contributions of Hispanics to the development and success of America are highlighted.

The Habitable Planet

Learn about Earth's natural systems and environmental science

On the Other Hand

An instructional program that teaches how to use sign language

A Tavala

Join Former NVCC Student Lucia Kane in the kitchen as she prepares home made dishes

The World of Chemistry

Simulations and experiments introduce students to chemistry in this video series

Economics USA

This series covers introductory micro- and macroeconomics using news-style case studies paired with analysis segments that tie the stories to fundamental economic principles.

Literary Visions

Readings, dramatizations, and literary reviews reveal the structure and allure of literature

A History of Jewish Achievement in America

The contributions of the Jewish people to the development and success of America are highlighted.

Behavioral Science

An Overview of the Science of Human Behavior including subjects such as mental illness, memory, and addiction.

Core Sciences

Programs dealing in the Core concepts of Physics, Chemistry, Geology, Meteorology, Biology and Astronomy

Commonwealth Chronicles

NVCC-TV produced programs highlighting some of Virginia's stories.

