

YOUNG INVINCIBLES

WHO WE ARE

Young Invincibles (YI) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to amplifying the voices of young adults in the political process and expanding economic opportunity for our generation. We do this through building a community of young leaders to take action for social change, sharing the stories of young adults, cutting-edge policy research and analysis, providing tools for our generation to make smart economic choices, and mission-driven social enterprise ventures.

YOUNG INVINCIBLES' STORY

We were founded by a group of students in the summer of 2009, motivated by the recognition that young people's voices were not being heard in the debate over health care reform. We began providing the facts about the barriers young adults face in affording quality health insurance and by asking our peers to share their stories. We believed in our generation's capacity to stand up and make itself heard, and as our work expanded, the opportunity became more apparent. In the years since, YI has expanded from a group run out of a school cafeteria to a national organization with offices across the country. Today we have almost 50 staff, offices in California, Texas, Illinois, Colorado, New York, and DC, thousands of activists, and hundreds of trained Young Advocates, and serve as a leading national voice for young adults.
